TONIGHT AT THE ORPHEUM

"A Gentleman from Mississippi," which has a record of a year in New York City, and six months in Chicago, will be seen here for the first time tonight in the Orpheum theater. The play is a comedy of Washington official life and is the work of Harrison Rhodes and Thomas A. Wise. It is put forward by William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer. "A Gentleman from Mississippi" tells of the speedy education in the devious ways of Washington's official and social diplomacy of Senator "Bill" Langdon, an easy-going guileless and honest chap from Mississippi, sent to the senate by "the interests" in the belief that he will prove pliable through his ignorance of procedure. The role of the Senator will be played by James Lackaye. A quintet of pretty women will be seen in the feminine roles and the play will be presented with complete scenic equipments.

MOSELEY FAVORS AN EXHIBIT

OGDEN AND WEBER COUNTY SHOULD BE ADVERTISED.

At the Land & Irrigation Exposition Which is to Be Held in Chicago.

"I think Ogden should grasp the opportunity and send an exhibit to the United States Land & Irrigation exposition which will be held in Chicago from November 20th to December 4th. It will give an opportunity to advertise the resources of this community, its scenery and other advantages, which will be one of the best things Ogden has ever had."

The above is the statement made to a representative of this paper this morning by A. R. Moseley, traveling passenger agent of the Harriman lines, with headquarters at Ogden. He stated that the exposition, which is being backed by the Chicago Tribune, will have exhibits from all the principal communities in the United States, as well as from the United States government. Ogden and Weber county, Mr. Moseley stated, could furnish the best community exhibits of any city or county in the west.

He said a small booth, with agricultural and horticultural displays, together with some pictures of the canyon and the city, would advertise the city to almost three millions of people.

KILLED BY A PASSING TRAIN

J. D. CARROLL, WELL KNOWN IN OGDEN, IS SHOT.

Mystery Surrounds the Shooting—Carroll a Man of Family and Popular Citizen.

J. D. Carroll, representing an Ogden house in Nevada, and well known in this city, was shot and killed in Elko, Nevada, last Tuesday. The Winnemucca Star contains this account of the shooting:

J. D. Carroll, well-known in Winnemucca and Golconda, was shot and killed by a woman of the half world known as Birdie DeRacy in Elko Tuesday night. After being shot Carroll staggered into the Elk saloon, blood gushing from his mouth, fell to the floor and died. Considerable mystery surrounds the murder.

About twenty-five minutes before the shot was fired a woman entered the Elk winchroom and rang the bell. The bartender answered the bell and took the woman's order. She also told him that she wished to see Mr. Carroll. The bartender delivered the message and Mr. Carroll went back to the winchroom. This was the last seen of him until he staggered into the barroom.

The shot was fired from the outside near the corner of the winchroom and the alley running back of the Engler company's store. Carroll had evidently turned to leave the woman as the bullet entered his back, just below the left shoulder blade and passed through the body, lodging under the skin nearly over the heart. After he was shot Carroll walked about fifty-five or sixty feet, opened an outside screen door and the inner door of the barroom before he fell. The bullet evidently pierced his lungs as he bled copiously from the mouth.

After the shooting the woman entered the saloon, surrendered her pistol, and gave herself up to an officer. She purchased the pistol the afternoon of the shooting. The only statement the woman would make was that the shooting was accidental.

At the coroner's inquest, held the next day, there was no evidence to connect the woman with the killing and the jury returned a verdict that Carroll had been shot by some person unknown.

The deceased was a native of Utah, 42 years of age and leaves a mother, Mrs. Dusan of Battle Mountain, a wife and daughter. He was for many years a resident of Battle Mountain, but of recent years has lived in Elko. He was in Winnemucca about a week ago on a business trip.

A complaint has been sworn out charging Birdie DeRacy with the killing. She is said to have been born in Lovelock and to be a daughter of Eva Hay, a woman who has been sent to the insane asylum a number of times from this county.

MAN OF THE HOUR SALE OF SEATS

"The Man of the Hour," that sensational success among recent plays of American life and character, will again be seen here at the Orpheum Theater on Thursday and Friday nights, November 4 and 5, by William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer's special cast.

This marks the fourth year of this uncommon bit of dramatic work, the effort of George Broadhurst. "The Man of the Hour" has already broken some records in the way of prolonged runs. Thus, the play when first given was put into a Philadelphia playhouse, for what is called a "tryout," and remained there twenty-one weeks. It then was taken to New York city where it ran without interruption, for two years at the Savoy Theater, being the only serious play yet produced that ran right through the summer months in the metropolis. It had a sixteen weeks' run in Chicago, with no other dramatic composition to divide interest, all the other theaters being filled with musical attractions. It ran an even six months at the Tremont Theater, Boston.

Seats will be placed on sale Tuesday at 10 a. m.

KILLED IN ELKO BY A WOMAN

FRANK KENNEDY'S LIFELESS BODY LIFTED FROM TRACK.

Engineer Was Oiling His Engine When Death Overtook Him—Leaves Wife and Children.

Frank Kennedy, one of the oldest engineers on the Union Pacific railroad, was killed at Wamsutter, Wyoming, Saturday, by being struck by the engine of train No. 6. Kennedy was running the engine of train No. 7, which is westbound, and had pulled on to the side track at Wamsutter for water and to meet No. 6. While the fireman was on the tender, filling the tank with water, Kennedy got down from his engine to oil it. It is supposed that while working around the front end of his engine he stepped on the track in front of No. 6 and was struck and instantly killed.

Kennedy's body was immediately picked up and placed on train No. 6 and taken to Rawlins, which is 40 miles east of Wamsutter.

An investigation will be conducted by the railroad officials.

Engineer Kennedy was one of the oldest engineers on the Utah division of the Union Pacific. He is survived by a wife and several children, all of whom reside at Rawlins.

IDAHO TOWN SCENE OF DOUBLE TRAGEDY

A. M. Abbott, at American Falls, Fatally Shot Wife and Kills Himself.

American Falls, Ida., Oct. 31.—Without a word of warning, A. M. Abbott, at 7:30 o'clock tonight, shot his wife four times and then, turning a big six-shooter upon himself, ended his own life with a bullet through the heart.

The tragedy was enacted on the front porch of the Cottage hotel, which was conducted by Mrs. Abbott. It had its origin in domestic unhappiness, caused by excessive drinking on the part of the husband. Mrs. Abbott recently sued for a divorce, and the case was to have come up within a few days. Since the papers were filed Mrs. Abbott has been in constant fear of being killed, and had appealed to the local and county officers for protection.
